Index to European Education, Vol. 24
(Spring 1992–Winter 1992–93)

Spring 1992/Vol. 24, No. 1

Higher Education: What For?

Editor's Introduction
Susanne M. Shafer

Culture and the University
Federico Mayor

The National Educational Target in France:
80 Percent Secondary School Graduates
Franz Noichl

Gifted Students in the Universities of the Slovak Socialist Republic
Sylvia Brychová

The Bremen Hochschule Goes European Winfried Wessendorf

The Vitality of Basic Units in Higher Education in Turkey
Emel Dogramaci

Continuing Education and the Burden of Schooling
Pierre Dominicé

Degree by Mail-Order at Germany's Only Correspondence University
Evelyn Roll

The Role of Universities in Promoting Literacy
Mary Hamilton

Summer 1992/Vol. 24, No. 2

Family, Children, and School

Editor's Introduction
Susanne M. Shafer

Family Conditions for Today's Children (Germany)
Tobias Rülcker

The Strange Silence of the '68ers (France)
Hervé Hamon

Cooperation Between School and Family (Prerequisites—Implementations—Problems) (Western Europe)
K. Schleicher

Parental Involvement In Curriculum Matters: Parents, Teachers, and Children Working Together (England)
Janet S. Dye

Teaching and Family-School Dialogue in Geneva
Guy Cuzin

Education for Marriage and the Family in the Polish School
Susanne Oster

Poland: Educational Policy Trends
Hanna Komorowska

Fall 1992/Vol. 24, No. 3

Educating Girls for What?

Editor's Introduction
Susanne M. Shafer

This Wretched One-Sidedness
in Female Education (Switzerland)
Hans-Ulrich Grunder

Senior Instructors and the Women's Movement in the Struggle for Female Education, Illustrated by the Example of Girls' Secondary Education in Hamburg (Germany)
Elke Kleinau

Young Women: More Sensitive and
More Self-Critical than Young Men (Germany)
Klaus Hurrelmann

Girls Don't Move Up (Austria)
Eva Salomon

To Mix or Not to Mix:
Pakistani Girls in British Schools (United Kingdom)
Sitara Shaikh and Alison Kelly

A Conversation with Turkish Female Students:
"Every Sheep is Hung by Its Own Leg" (Germany)
Monika Springer

Girls and the Learning of Physical Concepts (Finland)
Leila Räsänen

Winter 1992–93/Vol. 24, No. 4

History Teaching in the New Europe

Editor's Introduction
Susanne M. Shafer

Poland's Return to Europe
Mikolai Kozakiewicz

What to Know about European History by the End of Compulsory Schooling
Marcella Colle-Michel

History Teaching in Romania
Nicolae M. Dascalu

Programs for Secondary Schools
Girvydas Duoblys

Report on History Teaching in Secondary Schools (Denmark)
Henrik Skovgaard Nielsen

The Roots of Our Identity
Flavio Cotti

On the History of Jews in Southwest Germany
Paul Sauer

Western GDR Research and Historiography in the GDR
Hermann Weber

Changes in Teaching at the Historical Institute of the University of Griefswald (Germany)
Horst Wernicke